MEMO ENDORSED

Re: United States v. Samuel Barrolle
07 Cr. 342 (WHP)

Dear Judge Pauley:

I write on behalf of my client, Samuel Barrolle, to respectfully request a brief adjournment of his sentencing. Last week, I submitted to Probation Mr. Barrolle's financial affidavit and various objections to the initial draft of the Pre-Sentence Report. Today, the Probation Department issued the final Pre-Sentence Report without incorporating my objections or Mr. Barrolle's affidavit because of my belated submission of these. Because I believe it would be preferable to hold the sentencing (which will include a restitution issue) with a Pre-Sentence Report that fully incorporates this information, I ask for a two-week adjournment to allow Probation to issue a revised report, and the Government and I to make any sentencing submissions. I have spoken to Special Assistant U.S. Attorney John N. Kane, who has no objection to an adjournment. Mr. Barrolle is out on bail and has been in perfect compliance with the conditions of his release. Both Assistant U.S. Attorney Kane and I are available at any time on March 17th or 18th, should those dates be convenient to the Court.

APPLICATION GRANTED. SENTENCING ADJOURNED TO MAY 23, 2008 AT 2:30 PM
Thank you for your consideration of this request.

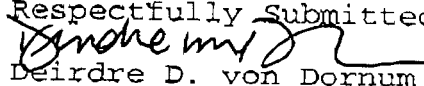

SO ORDERED:

WILLIAM H. PAULEY III U.S.D.J.
